The Show- A one woman tour de force nonsense trip from sea to space with an octopus.Starts pretty normal(ish)A woman called Polly sat at home talking to bees and thinks shes on the change but little does she know the change is becoming/living inside an octopus anyway she ends up in the sea inside this octopus who happens to be the one from that brill documentary 'My Octopus Teacher' The Octopus is not happy with the mess the 'manomonsters'(humans)are making of the sea(it's also about the environment a bit and lack of appreciation for our lush planet) They end up in space ,fly about for a bit, meet the Queen of space who blasts them back home. Polly is at home and considering next time turning into a bee, cliffhanger,its got a dancing cat in it, a shark love story and singing/dancing Toast. Sound alright?Yeah you should come, it will be fun. With support from Best In Class(support working class comics)
