Being different is hilarious... once you embrace it!

‘Other’ is a two-person stand-up show about the experiences of being different, trying/pretending to fit in, and learning to embrace your otherness. If you've ever been in a situation where you feel like you don't belong, this show is for you! Individual sets are followed by a joint, interactive final section as Rohan and Mani uniquely incorporate elements of observational stand-up, split-bill, double act and audience participation (with a quiz!) to ultimately demonstrate that we're all ‘other’ in our own ways. Previous audience acclaim includes: 'Thoughtful and awesome. Laughed till my sides hurt!' and 'Such a good mix of comedy and heart'.

‘Other’ arrives at the Edinburgh Fringe 2026 following successful, multi-performance runs at the Brighton Fringe this year, Watford Fringe 2025 and Camden Fringe 2025. Their last three London performances have all sold out.

Rohan Ashar is a Whole Lotta Comedy Kingston & Surbiton Comedian of the Year 2026 finalist, has been a Smok'd Crack New Comedian of the Year 2026 finalist, was a Comedy Virgins Max Turner Prize 2026 finalist, and was a West End New Act of the Year 2025 finalist. He was also part of the Disabled Cants team and show at the Edinburgh Fringe 2025 who won the Panel Prize in the ISH Edinburgh Comedy Awards 2025.

Mani Ahmed has been a West End New Act of the Year 2026 finalist, came 3rd place in the Comedy Virgins INGTE Competition 2025, won G&B Comedy's New Act Competition in 2024, and has previously taken two collaborative stand-up shows to the Edinburgh Fringe.
